

PROJECT : Hannan Photographic Collection

Description

This is an extensive photographic collection that contains thousands of photo negatives that were taken of people, places and events in the Hunter Region. The first phase of the project will concentrate on conservation processes, digitising the collection ledges and negatives from the 1950s.

Opportunities: Digitisation, conservation and creating metadata.

For further information enquire HERE